Our High Deductible Plan
Qualifies To Be Used With A Health Savings Account!

We have received many inquires over the past few weeks asking whether or not our current Under-65 High Deductible Plan meets the requirements to be used with a Health Savings Account (HSA). Rest assured that our High Deductible Plan qualifies. (Note: Other Blue Cross and Blue Shield Individual/Family health plans do not qualify.)

Talk To Your Clients

It's a great time to talk about HSAs with your clients. With taxes on their mind - - they are most likely to be receptive to a concept that utilizes tax advantages to possibly save them money. What a great opportunity to share information about the High Deductible Plan with them!

Availability of Materials

Continue to use the same materials that you use now. The High Deductible Plan's brochure (OB3631) is currently being updated. The new brochure is expected to be available shortly. For your convenience, you may order the additional materials by completing the mini supply requisition below.
